Metropolitan Commercial Bank Sponsors Stephen C. Widom Cultural Arts Program Broadway Boys Concert

Great Neck, N.Y. (December 12, 2017) – Metropolitan Commercial Bank® recently sponsored a performance by the Broadway Boys, one of the highlight events of the Stephen C. Widom Cultural Arts Program 2017 Concert Series. Broadway Boys is a six-member vocal group regionally acclaimed for their unparalleled vocals, imaginative reinvention of classic songs, and extensive repertoire of Broadway hits.

“Metropolitan Commercial Bank is pleased to continue sponsoring community-oriented events in Great Neck throughout the year,” said Laura Capra, Senior Vice President and Head of Retail Banking. “Our sponsorship of the Stephen C. Widom Cultural Arts Program 2017 Concert Series and other programs like our Bank-On-Art Showcase series, summer concerts in the Jon Ielpi Memorial Park and the annual Great Neck Plaza fall street festival are part of the Bank’s commitment to engage with and support the communities we serve.”

Ralph Ventura, Vice President and Relationship Manager at the Bank’s Great Neck Plaza banking center added, “We look forward to hosting, sponsoring and supporting many more community events and programs in our Great Neck Plaza banking center and throughout our neighboring communities for years to come.”
