Metropolitan Commercial Bank’s Great Neck Team Provides 77 Warm Winter Coats for Long Island Families in Need

GREAT NECK, N.Y. - February 5, 2019— Metropolitan Commercial Bank’s Great Neck banking center recently donated 77 coats to Long Island Cares as the Bank wrapped up its annual Give the Gift of Warmth Holiday Coat Drive. Since December, the teams from all six banking centers have generously donated new and slightly used coats for those in need of extra warmth—and encouraged customers and local residents to donate as well.

In total, Metropolitan Commercial Bank collected 377 across all six banking centers—with the coats collected at its Manhattan and Boro Park locations being donated to New York Cares. The Bank continues to seek partnerships with community organizations that help better the lives of individuals and families in the neighborhoods the Bank serves.
